DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's amendments filed November 23, 2004 have been entered. The addition of claims 2-6 is acknowledged.

Claims 1-6 are pending.

The outstanding rejections are withdrawn in view of the amendments filed November 23, 2004.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 contains the trademark/trade name "ariflo". Where a trademark or trade name is used in a claim as a limitation to identify or describe a particular material or product, the claim does not comply with the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. See Ex parte Simpson, 218 USPQ 1020 (Bd. App. 1982). The claim scope is uncertain since the trademark or trade name cannot be used properly to identify any particular material or product. A trademark or trade name is used to identify a source of goods, and not the goods themselves. Thus, a trademark or trade name does not identify or describe the goods associated with the trademark or trade name. In the present case, the trademark/trade name is used to identify/describe the compound "cilomilast" and, accordingly, the identification/description is indefinite. Examiner notes that the claim also contains the trademark "V-11294A", "D-4418", "BRL-61063", and "SB-207499". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over WO98/37894 (English equivalent US Patent 6, 333,354 is also provided) and US Patent 6,326,388 ('388) in view of Aiello (Current Opinion in Ophthalmology, 1997;8(3):19-31).

US 6,333,354 teaches that a composition containing PDE 4 inhibitors such as SB-207499 as useful in treating retinopathy (See col. 2, line 19, col. 3, line 51).

'388 teaches PDE 4 inhibitors therein as useful in inhibiting angiogenesis (See col. 4, line 20 – col. 5, line 20).

The primary references do not expressly teach SB-207499 as useful in teaching macular degeneration.

Aiello teaches angiogenesis playing an important role in age-related exudative macular degeneration See page 24, col. 1, last paragraph to col. 2). Aiello also teaches that the inhibition of angiogenesis would be useful in treating diseases induced by neovasulization (See page 25, col. 2 to page 27).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to employ the PDE 4 inhibitor SB-207499 containing composition in a method to treat exudative macular degeneration.

One of ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to employ the PDE 4 inhibitor SB-207499 containing composition in a method to treat exudative macular degeneration. It is known that PDE 4 inhibitors as useful in inhibiting angiogenesis and angiogenesis inhibitors would be effective in treating exudative macular degeneration. Therefore, employing any known PDE 4 inhibitors, such as SB-207499, in the method of treating exudative macular degeneration would then be obvious, absent evidence to the contrary.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
